

Local Hydro Employees Discuss Strike Action

A meeting of all Ontario Hydro employees in the Minden area on Tuesday, March 6 at the community centre in Minden, discussed the possibility of strike action by the Ontario Hydro Employees Union in its contract dispute with the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario.

Bill Payne, chairman of the east-central division of the union, told the members in the Minden area that strike action would only be used by the union as a last resort. "If a strike should prove necessary," Mr. Payne said, "the union has offered to maintain all essential services, such as hydro for homes, hospitals, schools and stores."

Mr. Payne urged the union membership to reject a majority report of the conciliation board appointed to settle the Hydro dispute. "The report is not based on the facts and admits it," Mr. Payne claimed. He quoted the report as saying:

"These recommendations are made in the spirit of compromise and are not to be taken as findings of fact established by the evidence or material placed before us."

"What is the use of our union presenting over 250 pages of evidence to the board, including evidence which the board admitted is beyond dispute, if the board ignores the evidence when making its report?" Mr. Payne asked.

He demonstrated with the aid of a chart that the 2% wage increases recommended by the conciliation board would leave Ontario Hydro wages below those of employees of municipal hydro utilities such as Peterboro P.U.C.

Bill Payne, chief steward at Minden, reminded the Minden area membership of the union, that they perform the most essential public service in this community. "Your work requires great skill, efficiency and dependability," he said. "It deserves the highest wages in the community." Mr. Payne pointed out that the union's wage demands were not unreasonable and would not increase the cost of Hydro in the Minden, Haliburton or surrounding districts.

"Hydro rates are still at 1940 levels," Mr. Payne stated. "What else can you buy in Minden or Haliburton for 1940 prices," he asked.

Hodgson To Stay In Federal Field

Much speculation has been going on as to whether Clayton W. Hodgson, M.P., would resign his seat in the House of Commons and seek the nominations for the position of member of the legislative assembly for this retirement of Hon. L. M. Frost.

Information from reliable sources indicates that come election time whether it be June or October, C. W. Hodgson will again be the standard bearer for the Progressive Conservative party in this riding.

While as yet there has been little activity on the part of the Liberals or the New Democratic Party, the Social Credit party for some months have been carrying on an energetic campaign in an endeavor to acquaint the voters with the fundamentals of their party.

There is, however, the distinct possibility that come election day we in this riding will witness a four cornered contest.

Trappers Hold Third Fur Sale

The Haliburton Trappers' Association held their third sale of the season at the Orange hall Thursday, March 1.

This sale which each year generally is small went over very good with 200 beaver being sold. Prices were in line with the last sale held in January this year.

Buyers' receipts totaled $3,200.

Most of the beaver sold came in from Huntsville, Torrence, Vankoughnet, Minden, Campbellford and Wilberforce. Local trappers had very few on this sale.

The next sale is planned for April 9 which will be the last sale held this season in Haliburton and should be a big sale, depending on the weather.

The executive committee meets Friday night at West Guilford to plan our Haliburton's first trappers convention. The details are to be printed later concerning this event.

Late News Flashes

At press time it was learned that Mrs. Rita Bidgood, recently disposed elected candidate to the Cardiff municipal council, has acquiesced to the many demands of that area's voters, that she will seek re-election when qualified.

Mrs. Bidgood declined to make public her plans, but intimated to the Echo that an announcement will be forthcoming in the very near future.

Playing before the largest crowd of the season, well over 500 fans, the Haliburton Huskies downed the Minden Monarchs 10-8 in the first game of the best four out of seven intermediate ORHA playoff game played in Haliburton on Tuesday night.

Stuart Baker and George Nicholls led the Huskies scoring attack with four goals each.

Owing to the influenza epidemic our high school at present is closed, but we learn that it will reopen on Friday morning.

Minden Man Kills Bear With Axe

Ken Nesbitt of R.R. 1, Minden who is an employee of the Dept. of Lands and Forests had a trying experience one day last week. While working at department's camp in Bruton township he received a real surprise when they were girdling trees.

After an elm tree had fallen to the ground Nesbitt was looking inside of it to see if there were any coons present. To his surprise he came face to face with a live bear.

The 100 pound bear very casually walked out and headed toward the swamp with Nesbitt after it. When he caught up with the bear he immediately took the axe he was carrying and hit the bear over the head, killing it on the spot.

The bear was on show on Haliburton's main street last Friday afternoon.

Home and School Variety Night

"The Sound of Music" was heard last Friday evening in the high school auditorium. Betty Barnum sang this song and there were piano solos as well as a barber shop quartette to get the program off to a good start.

Bruce Henry proved a most entertaining master of ceremonies. He also conducted the draw for the door prizes during intermission.

Mrs. Bonnie Walling had eight small boys and girls perform twice in square dances. Lakeview and Victoria schools participated in trios. A double duet from Boskung sang and an accordion player, Leslie Kondi, added to the enjoyment of all.

Mr. Stirling Mather recited "Calib's Courtship."

The highlight of the evening to many was the "My Fair Lady" number done by Peggy Neville and Bill Glendon in costume, and ably accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Ron Curry. They sang "With a Little Bit of Luck," "Wouldn't it be Lovely," and "I'm Getting Married in the Morning."

A touch and take table proved an added attraction. It was arranged by Mrs. Bert Howe, who was also chairman of this fine program.

L&F Check Deer Population

With co-operation from the weatherman flights were made last Tuesday and Thursday to map deer yards in Haliburton county from the air.

Two large areas, one in Harburn and Bruton townships and the other in Hindon and Anson townships were selected for aerial surveying.

Observers report that deep snow is beginning to impede deer in their travels.

Although snow readings last week in Haliburton county averaged 30.6 inches, the thaw on Monday and Tuesday reduced the readings to an average of 28.6 inches by Monday morning.

Crust formation, however, has canceled any advantage that this reduced snow depth may have had for deer.

Monarchs, Huskies In Semi-Final Clash

Only nine teams were entered in the intermediate B ORHA play-offs. Only a few are left but the Minden Monarchs and the Haliburton Huskies are two of them.

These two rival clubs are scheduled to play in this semi-final round and the winner will go into the finals.

The first game of the best of seven series was played in Haliburton on Tuesday night with the second game to go this Friday night in Minden. The third game will be played this Saturday night at the Haliburton community arena.

COULD THIS BE A RECORD

Larry Lonsberry of the Minden Monarchs may be holding the record for the most goals scored in a play-off game.

Playing against Princeton Panthers in an ORHA game played in Ayr last week, Lonsberry scored the believe it or not total of nine goals in one game.

These nine goals were all important to the Minden team as they needed them to nose out Princeton 15-14.

It is not hard to see why Larry Lonsberry is the Minden Monarchs leading scorer.

Monmouth Centre News

The annual tournament for the Monmouth community centre trophies was held Friday, March 2. It proved to be a real night for Haliburton teams. Their squirts won the first cup and it was presented to them by councillor Frank Davenport.

Due to a misunderstanding there were three teams competing for the pee wee trophy. Haliburton won from West Guilford in the first game and then defeated Wilberforce pee wees and were presented with their cup by George Constable.

The game for the Bantam team did not take place.

The action resumed and resulted in Haliburton mid-gets taking the last cup from the Wilberforce team. Reg. Schofield, chairman of the community centre board, gave the cup to the winners.

The attendance for the night was a disappointment to those who worked with the preparations and was due no doubt to illness prevalent at this time.

Saturday night carnival attendance was also much smaller than usual. The evening began with a performance by the figure skaters. Patsy Watson in a solo followed by duets with Dawn Wallace and Linda McDuff, Linda Mitchell and Phyllis Dunford, Colleen Godfrey and Judy Tallman.

The next number was a Dutch waltz with four girls taking part, Patsy Watson, Joan Barker, Linda Mather and Sandra Hogan.

This was followed by a duet by Gloria Jane Herlihey and Sharon Dunford.

The girls worked out all their own routines and their costumes and gave a good performance.

There were races for the boys and girls of all ages. It is too bad that more children don't take part in these as there are good prizes.

Then came a broomball game which was enthusiastically played and appreciated by the audience.

Finally the masquerade and the judging of costumes. Although there were not as many represented on the ice as usual, the costumes shown were better than ever this year with a good variety of dress and some good comics.

The judges were Harold Herlihey and Mr. Hughes of Harcourt. The master of ceremonies was the ever popular Jack Taylor. The door prize was won by Susan Sheehy, the bean guessing contest by Barbara Saunders and the cake by Eddie Scott. Attendance guessing was won by Phyllis Dunford.

The prizes were made available by the generosity of the following people: Ron Mumford, IGA, Adams Distillers, Anderson's service station, Stoughton's garage, Ernie Warren, Agnews Red & White, MacCraft Industries, Lloyd Watson, Terrace Inn, Silverwoods Dairy, Webster Bros., Curry Motors, Wilberforce Veneer, Rae's Hardware, Stan Parish, Texaco Station Wilberforce, Finlays, Coca-Cola, Pepsi-Cola, Clare Grady, Hostess Potato Chips, Holly's store, Sissons of Gooderham and Agnews of Gooderham.

To Cardiff Ratepayers

It is with regret that I have been forced to relinquish my seat on the Cardiff Council. This was brought about by the fact that I have not as yet obtained the naturalization papers that would make me legally eligible as a British subject to sit as the representative of those people who voted for me. The immigrant entry permit and legal resident papers that I obtained over five years ago do not supply me with any such privilege.

However, in the very near future I expect this technicality will be taken care of and, if it is your wish, I will be happy to offer my services as soon as the opportunity again arises. In the meantime my interest in Municipal affairs has not lessened; in fact this incident has tended to increase this interest.

I urge those who so enthusiastically supported me at Council Meetings to join me in the continuation of taking a part in the activities of council.

May I take this opportunity of thanking all those who helped and supported me during this period and I look forward to the same support should the occasion arise in the future.

C.C.C. CURLING NEWS

The turnout to our fund committee's effort last Wednesday, February 28 was gratifying and there were very few of our members, that were able, who failed to show up or who were not represented by proxy. That kind of support plus the enthusiasm for the ancient Scottish pastime are two of the things which have, so far, made our curling club such a success and lend promise for greater things in the future.

On top of this, we were amply supported by the surrounding populace and we are deeply grateful for their assistance. We hope everyone enjoyed their evening out and are sorry that all could not share in the prizes that were distributed.

However, another Wednesday night party is in the cards and it is deemed likely that three days before St. Patrick's day might be propitious.

We would indeed be lax if we failed to mention that Kay Schwandt won the big cash prize and then shared her good fortune with the club and the fact that all the other prizes were donations from various club members. No sir! You can't beat that kind of cooperation however, at least we can tie it. At the risk of being trite, the next affair will be conducted along similar lines.

Murray Agnew's rink effectively blocked the small opening that Ross Anderson's crew had left for Bill Burt's gang to wiggle through to attain the Tallman trophy. In fact he built a dam big enough to hold back a Niagara by taking seven ends, which was just about what Bill's rink would have had to accomplish to upset Ross's appletart. Ergo!

Ross Anderson plus Chester Schwandt plus Mel Croft plus Stan Brooking are co-holders of the Tallman trophy until it is wrested from their grasps next season. It couldn't happen to better guys.

The other event that is history for the 1961-62 season is the Bostonian competition. Reg Schofield's rink seemed to be tossing a monkey wrench into the close contest between Lindsay's and Tallman's and had a comfortable lead until that five end set them back on their heels and allowed the Tallman representation to go on to win, thereby overcome Lindsay's rink lead of one point and surpass it by the same margin.

That makes Carl Tallman, Merv Roberts, Blake Barnes and Gary Stoughton temporary custodians of the Bostonian trophy although their names will remain engraved on one of its plaques for time immemorial.

Going through the schedule without a loss and only one tie is an enviable record in any man's language as is the record of that "fearsome foursome" Chuck Lindsay, Dallyn Pickins, Jack Wallace and Walter Madill who succumbed by a point by having two ties.

The robins will soon be here and brooms will be hung up until about the time that Santa Claus polishes up his harness for his annual pilgrimage.

The final competition for the president's cup is well under way and by the time that the patron saint of Ireland has his day, "finis" should be written under our scheduled curling events.

A local bonspiel? That's possible.

A trophy presentation and banquet? That's for sure.

We're haunting superstition by floating it on Friday, April 13 and it promises to be a gala affair. Naturally we would like to have some guests from neighboring curling clubs or prospective members, to help us celebrate a successful season and if we overlook sending you an invitation, don't hesitate to contact our secretary, Keith Cameron.

In view of the fact that there were so many disappointed in not being able to get to meet the mighty mice, chairman Jack, no doubt, could arrange to have them again visit our club. Naturally we would want to have a good turnout to shake hands with those congenial fellows and we do feel that it would be a nice gesture if you would phone or talk to Jack Wallace to let him know if you would be on hand for the occasion.

Minden Monarchs Win Series Over Princeton

The Minden Monarchs won their first playoff series two games to nothing when they defeated the Princeton Panthers, 5-1 at the Minden recreation centre on Saturday night.

The Minden club who nosed out the Princeton club by the narrow margin of one goal on Thursday night at Ayr took no chances on knocking this team off on Saturday night.

The Minden team who were taking no chance on losing this game, put up a stone wall defence right from the opening whistle and kept the smooth skating Princeton team out of the Minden end of the rink for most of the game.

Neil Burk put the winners off on the right foot when he scored the only goal of the first period. The Minden club were never headed from here on in to the finish.

In the second period the Monarchs made it 2-0 when Murray Bradt scored on a beautiful solo effort. In the third period the Minden club extended their lead to 3-0 on a goal by John Debbitt. It was at this point in the game that Princeton got their only goal of the game. Warren MacGregor was the goal scorer.

Larry Lonsberry, the big scoring flash of the Minden team, waited until the last few minutes of the game when he scored two goals to given the Minden club a 5-1 victory.

Notes on the Game
Fifteen penalties were handed out in the game with eight going to Princeton and seven to the Monarchs.

Larry Lonsberry who scored the nine goals in the first game was a watched man all evening and when they forgot him in the last few minutes of the game, Lonsberry wasn't long scoring two quick goals.

The game drew a crowd of well over 400 fans at the Minden arena.

The Minden Monarchs defence was outstanding in this game and they were the big reason the club won the game. They went with only three men on the defence, namely Raymond, Watson and Handley.

The Princeton team had a new goalie in for this game and he played an outstanding game keeping the score down for the losers.

Ron Burk, who was between the pipes for the Monarchs was also a star of the game.

Minden Juveniles Win Over Beaton

The Minden juveniles returned to their home ice at Minden last Tuesday night and made it two in a row over Beaton. The 10-2 victory by Minden enabled them to take the best of three series 2-0 and it advanced them into the juvenile D OHA semi-final playoff round.

Sherdon Kelly with four goals, led the way for the winners with Craig Gartshore and Tim Jackson getting two while Mike Jackson and Rick Bain picked up one goal each. Minden led 2-0 at the end of the first, 6-2 in the second and won it 10-2.

The game roughened up in the third period when four Beaton players were in the penalty box at one time.

A woman who sponsors the Beaton team was so provoked over the penalties that she grabbed a hockey stick out of the players box and threw it on the ice.

The Minden club expect to be playing the next round with a team near Galt.

We forgot to mention last week that Scottie LaRue and Lennie Salvatori were the referees for the Glen Dart memorial trophies games . . . The Haliburton Huskies and the Minden Monarchs are both ending the season on a good financial note. The playoffs will also net both the teams some cash if the ice stays in the local arenas. Both teams were away up on attendance from other years . . . Congratulations to the Minden juvenile hockey club who won their playoff series with Beaton. They took the first two games of a best of three series . . . If the new ice making machine works they expect to be able to flood between periods at the Haliburton community arena.

We still hear the beefs from some of the teams in the Haliburton county minor hockey league that they didn't have enough ice time this season for practice. Surely next season the schedule can be drawn up to see that these teams get enough time for practice. There's six days out of the week and surely time can be allotted here.

BANCROFT DEFEAT HALIBURTON IN BASKETBALL GAME

Last Wednesday, the North Hastings High School senior boys basketball team played the final game of their five game schedule against Haliburton. Bancroft romped to an easy victory with a score of 56-31.

Only five senior members showed up to play. Neil McCrank was ejected in the second quarter, leaving the Bancroft team with only four players. In spite of this, the senior squad still kept sinking basket after basket, until the final whistle.

Top scorers for Bancroft were Jim Bundark, who netted 22 points, and Keith Patterson, who sunk 18 points. Haliburton's top scorer was Ralph Newbatt, who netted 13 points.

Out of the five games played, the seniors have won four. Much credit goes to the boys for the fine showing they have put on this year, and to their coach, Mr. Baldock.

CURLING CLUB TOPICS

Roy Windover of Minden is proving to be quite a curler. He and his rink walked off with first prize in the Skyline bonspiel at Haliburton and last week he returned home to win top honors in the curling bonspiel in Minden.

The Haliburton curling club sent a rink to the mixed bonspiel held at Bobcaygeon last Saturday.

A Temagami rink won top honors in the third annual mixed bonspiel held at Bancroft last week. The winners won the Faraday Mine trophy. Forty rinks participated in the most successful four day spiel. Out of town rinks taking part were from Deep River, Peterboro, Apsley, Cardiff, Temagami, Ottawa, Toronto, Haliburton and Smiths Falls. Haliburton didn't have a team in the winner's circle.

Curling is going over so good at Wilberforce. Don't be surprised if they try for the second sheet of ice come next winter. Enthusiasm has been very high over the past season and the one sheet of ice was busy all the time.

The playoffs for mixed curling at Haliburton started last Friday night.

It was guest night at the Haliburton curling club last Saturday night. Each member was allowed to bring along a guest.

Haliburton Wants A Juvenile Hockey Team Next Winter

After watching the Glen Dart hockey tournament a week ago we came away with the feeling that we have some good hockey players coming along in Haliburton county. Also we have more young players participating than ever before. But in questioning some of the players who weren't playing on this night they told us that they were too old for midget. This means they are still too young for junior and too young to play with the Huskies.

Consequently these boys are out of hockey for the time being. They were all asking us the same question. "Why isn't there a juvenile team in Haliburton so they could play hockey."

After looking around we found that there is plenty of material for a team but they will need coaches and a sponsor before anything can be done.

This season Minden have made the first move and they entered a juvenile team in the OHA playoffs. Four Haliburton boys played with them, but the rest were left out in the cold.

A boy at this age is better playing hockey than having nothing to do and getting into trouble.

So come next winter we are hoping that something can be done about a team and if anyone would like to sponsor the team the first part of the battle will be over.

We were wondering if the Glen Dart hockey committee would like to see if they could get it started. These men have had wonderful luck with the minor hockey and possibly they could help out here. Even some of the local hockey fans are also wanting to see the juveniles get organized.

Come next winter something must be done about this.

MINDEN WIN OPENER

Rough Night On Goalies

The 29th goal was the most important one when the Minden Monarchs played the Princeton Panthers in an OHA intermediate B game played in Ayr on Thursday night.

Burray Bradt of Minden scored it at 6:20 of overtime to break a 14-14 tie. It was his first goal of the night.

This all important game was filled with thrills and spills and one who saw the game could very nearly come home and write a book on it.

Believe it or not the Minden scoring ace Larry Lonsberry scored the miraculous sum of nine goals to help the team to its first win of the playoffs. They were all important goals as the Princeton club had the Monarchs hanging onto the ropes at the conclusion of the game.

We wonder if the nine goals in one game would be a record for one player to score in a playoff game.

Bev. Gartshore also had a big night for the winners counting the hat trick and singles went to Dave Caisler, John Debbitt and of course the winner and tie breaker went to Murray Bradt. This is one game that the Monarchs were lucky to win and the closest contest that they have played all winter long.

You would have to admit that it was a rough night on goalies as the red light had to be flashed on 29 times.

The game was only 10 minutes old when the Princeton team had the Monarchs down to the count of 7-1. They caught the Minden team off guard and the way they were scoring and flying in the Minden end the local team thought they would be beaten 25-1 before it was all over.

Due to the fact that the Monarchs haven't been playing very much of late and also owing to the very long trip to Ayr it seemed to take the Minden club 10 minutes and seven goals against them before they realized they were in a hockey game.

They finally did tie it up and took their first lead of the game which was 10-9. With less than seven seconds left in the game Minden were leading 14-13 only to see Princeton tie it up and force the overtime. But Minden got the winner and the first game of the best of three series.

It was such a long drive down to Ayr that the Minden club arrived just in time to put on their equipment and get on the ice. This was one main factor in the Monarchs slow start.

Notes on the Game

Larry Lonsberry, who scored the nine Minden goals was the real opportunist and never missed a bet when it came to scoring. Besides his scoring spree he also missed on three good scoring plays.

A small crowd sat in for the contest—just a few over the 150 mark and most of them were cheering for the Minden Monarchs.

The Minden club had trouble keeping the opposition out of their end and once they crossed the blue line they were real poison.

Founders' Night Program
Last Tuesday night was the meeting of Minden Home and School Association with Mrs. Dudman presiding. The usual opening and reports were followed by all reading in unison the ten commandments for parents. On the count of parents, Mrs. Brown's room won the award.

Suggestions for purchasing something with our money were discussed as a bicycle rack or a record player but nothing was decided.

Mr. Harold Morgan, principal, gave a short talk on how reports are made out and this cleared up some points for the parents, also he suggested we might like to purchase crests for students attaining 60% in grade seven.

Mr. Hussey had arranged for some musical selections, first a triple trio and then several accordin solos by Les Condiey, then a choir group sang several songs. Miss McArthur very graciously thanked Mr. Hussey for preparing this music.

Mrs. Dudman then announced that the March meeting would be open house in the evening and at this time parents might discuss any problems with the teachers. Mrs. Weiss had the names of executive and members on the board and the nomination forms were handed out and gathered at the end of the meeting. It was also suggested that the other school building be open at all regular meetings as the parents might then visit the rooms if they wished.

Mrs. Dudman read a letter from the federation and this explained where our collection, taken at this meeting, would go.

There then followed the candlelight service for founder's night. The reader was Mrs. McGe, Teressa Strong lighting a candle of the anniversary cake for the children, Mrs. Sears for the federation, Mrs. Lidster for the teachers and Mrs. Dudman for the association.

The meeting closed with God Save the Queen and a delicious cup of tea and the anniversary cake were served by the executive.

Weekly Sports

by Creighton Feir

Congratulations are in store to the Minden hockey teams who are vying for top honors in the ORHA and the juvenile D OHA. Both teams have won their first round and are waiting to go on.

Les Winch, who is caretaker of the Minden recreation centre is to be congratulated on the interest he is taking in minor hockey in the Minden area. We understand he has bought several pieces of equipment for the Minden juvenile D team. He has purchased new sweaters and stockings and sticks for the club already this season. He also pays for the team's ice practices at the Minden arena.

A small crowd turned out from Wilberforce for the Monmouth community centre hockey games. But what interest the hockey fans are showing in the West Guilford area. Over 65 boarded buses from Guilford for the trip to Wilberforce for the event on Friday night. Many others went by car. This is real interest and with this kind of support West Guilford should be turning out some good hockey players.

According to a write up in one of the Toronto dailies it states that the Woodbridge Dodgers will be the team to beat in the metro junior B playoffs. Windy O'Neill, coach of the Lakeshore team, states that Woodbridge can be beat by any of the three other teams in the playoff but that the team will have to go all out to win. Woodbridge has an outstanding team and showed their power when they met the Haliburton Huskies in an exhibition game played earlier in the season.

The scoring standings we printed in last week's paper on the Minden Monarchs were final. Larry Lonsberry was the top point getter for the season.

The hockey fans who took in the first game of the ORHA playoffs between Minden Monarchs and Princeton must have thought they were witnessing a basketball game—29 goals were scored.

Some of the local hockey fans have been in attendance at some of the hockey games when Oakville and Bradford have been playing. The reports we receive is that these teams are very evenly matched and for that matter all of the teams in the league are very closely matched. It's even more interesting to see two local boys playing in the league, Gary Vasey of Minden with Bradford and Herb Baker of Haliburton playing with Oakville.

HALIBURTON LAKE

Mr. Bud Bonner of Thornhill was up to visit his cottage at the Lake on Sunday. He saw a party of six who stayed the week end at Mr. Wilson Clark's cottage, with no mishaps except a dead car battery resulting a call for help.

Bud reports that the snow is fairly heavy on the ground and very heavy on cottage roofs which do not have snow removal.

In a trip around the lake he observed one cottage with the roof caved in on South Bay and several others sagging dangerously. He urges any cottagers who do not have snow removal to make arrangements to have the snow cleared off at once.

Cottagers who are planning to visit their cottages should be careful to wear warm clothing and to use skis or snowshoes from traveling on the lake, as there was a serious case of exposure last month. Without skis or snowshoes it is impossible to walk the lake at present.

IN QUEST OF YESTERDAY

A HISTORY OF HALIBURTON

by NILA REYNOLDS

(COPYRIGHTED)

Instalment Eighty-Two GUILFORD, HAVELOCK AND HARBURN

If the recollections of some of the elder pioneers are accurate, the first building to be erected by white emigrants in Guilford township was the Mud Lake depot camp on lot 3, conc. 7. The first of these log buildings was standing as early as 1862 for Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Sawyers' daughter, Mary Jane Sawyer, the first white child in Guilford, was born there that year.

It is doubtful if it was functioning as a depot camp at that time. Possibly it was constructed by Hiram Sawyer himself while he was trapping the area and later utilized by the Mossom Boyd logging interests when they started cutting pine.

Guilford's first white child was a bonnie talented lass, an excellent dancer and musically inclined. On reaching womanhood she became the bride of George Barry who had emigrated from Haldimand county with his brothers James, Mathias, Frank, Christopher and their 75 year old father, James Barry Sr., who often recalled his father, a shepherd on Scotland's hills killed by an overturned wagon while gathering lambs in a late spring snow storm.

Maybe his father's untimely death turned him from agricultural pursuits for James Barry Sr. chose to follow the sea. He used to tell his children that the roughest voyage he ever made was the seven weeks his family enjoyed the rousing sea chanteys which James Barry used to entertain them with as they gathered round the fire in the evening. Mrs. Barry, whose maiden name was Doman was born in Switzerland.

By an ironic turn of fate Guilford in Canada West was once noted for the same sport which Guilford in Surrey on the River Wey had enjoyed since the days of William the Third—horse racing. The man whose name was most closely connected with the "sport of kings" Atlantic crossing which brought him to Canada. How was George Barry, during the early 1890's the proprietor of the Minden hotel.

However Barry's crowning passion was horses and when he purchased a farm on lot 1, conc. 6 Guilford, he laid out a half mile track in the level sandy field near the barn and in the years between 1909 and 1925 he held annual summer horse races which attracted crowds and competitors from as far away as Lindsay and Fenelon Falls.

Purses were made up from the gate receipts for both sulky drivers and saddle horses and to the generations which thrilled to the excitement of thundering hooves and arched necks which split the wind, the Barry races became the year's most anticipated event.

It was a busy time for Mrs. Barry and her daughters whose responsibility it was to prepare meals to feed the hungry spectators. Her training as a cook at the Minden hotel must have been a big help. To the children of the community, the outstanding feature of the races was the refreshment stand which dispensed ice cream, and oceans of lemonade.

After supper the crowd adjourned to the threshing floor of the Barry barn to dance until the rooster crowed. The orchestra was no problem for the 13 Barry children, only two did not play at least one instrument. In the twenties the dance following the races was held at the West Guilford Orange hall which was built around 1903 or 1904.

Some of the owners of the horses which raised the red dust on the Barry track were Dr. McKeever, Haliburton's well known veterinarian, Angus Watt with his steed "Golden Bow," Charlie Fader and Charlie Taylor of Maple Lake, and Oliver Stevens who kept saddle horses.

Perhaps Jack Mortimer had the most unusual entry, a horse called "Little Tom," which had been trained with the family dog. If Tom happened to slacken his pace, his owner only had to clap his hands and yell "sic em!" and Tom, thinking the dog was at his heels, would pass everything in sight.

In a small community outstanding performances are long remembered. Even today if a child does well at the field day races, an old timer is apt to remark "They run like the Guilford Boy."

George Barry always kept good horses. For many years he owned a fine stallion called "Smiler" and a mare called "Mamie Bryno," but the day he watched his brother Tice try out a new two year old dark bay with black mane and tail recently purchased in Victoria county he was horseman enough to know that the colt outclassed anything he had ever seen. He bought him on the spot, named him the "Guilford Boy" and started his training as a sulky racer. It was a deed he never regretted.

In the years that followed George Barry and his trainer Jimmy Powell traveled far and wide with the "Guilford Boy" whose speed and proud carriage made him a crowd pleaser at races and fall fairs all through Ontario. During his career he collected a trunk full of first prize ribbons for the best animal in his class. The trio even spent three months on the American racing circuit where the "Guilford Boy" established some new track records. Had his performance been consistent he might have become one of the all time racing greats. Certainly his speed was phenomenal and Barry was often offered a fabulous price for the animal. He refused to sell. He also refused to have the "Guilford Boy" whom he treated like one of the family, whipped for breaking pace, for the animal was a stallion and difficult to control. If he was in the mood he would win a race by a wide margin but at the next event he might break his stride and be eliminated in the first lap.

Six or seven years after he took Tice Barry for that first wild cutter ride, the "Guilford Boy" was kicked on the stifle and died from infection. George Barry did not long survive him and with their passing the Guilford races were held no more.

Although the pounding hooves of the "Guilford Boy" no longer wake the echoes, the love of speed did not die out in the Barry family. A grandson, Bruce Peck, is one of the racing drivers sponsored by the British Triumph Car Co. and has competed for three years on Canadian tracks including Mossport, winning several trophies. His mother, Mrs. Hazel Barry Peck will probably add them to the trunk full of prize ribbons won by the "Guilford Boy."

To be lost north of the settlements in the rugged bush country of one of the uninhabited townships is an ordeal which those who survive it are loth to repeat.

Not long after arriving from Haldimand county, Chris Barry stood on the bench of a Kennis bay with only a few matches in his pocket and a small rifle and realized that he was completely lost. He and a neighbor familiar with the terrain had paddled up the lakes to collect a deer which Alf Sisson and Tice Barry had shot at wildcat and were unable to carry out. The waves at Cat Bay were too rough for two men to ride in the heavily laden canoe so Chris Barry offered to walk the shoreline to an appointed rendezvous.

It was the first time he had ever seen Kennis so when he reached his destination before his companion he did not recognize it and believing himself to be on the wrong lake, he re-entered the bush, this time to become hopelessly lost.

For three days and two harrowing nights he wandered aimlessly across miles of tangled swamps and dense forests, his only food, a partridge he managed to shoot and cook. When he staggered into the clearing at Dick Johnson and Bob Moore's hunting camp at Crab Lake, his clothing hung in tatters and the soles of his boots were worn out.

Chris Barry's experience lost in the back country colored his dreams for the rest of his life but he was more fortunate than Mrs. Hunter of Bobcaygeon who went for a walk at Eagle Lake one fine Sunday morning in July 1892 and was never seen again by mortal eyes.

Mrs. Hunter, a lady of exemplary character, was a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Arnberg Sr., who lived on a hill-top farm not far from the log school. When Mrs. Hunter passed by remarking casually that she intended to walk out to the main road and gather some of the seasons wild flowers which were blooming in profusion, Mrs. Arnberg was milking her cow in the lane. She finished her morning chores and prepared the noon meal before going to call her mother whom she assumed had returned from her walk. The room was empty.

As the hours passed, the Arnberg's concern increased and neighbors were called in for an organized search. They were able to track Mrs. Hunter to the bottom of the first hill, a distance of 150 feet from the gate. Here the footsteps terminated abruptly without visible signs of a struggle of any sort or animal tracks that might indicate she had been carried off.

In the days that followed 40 seasoned woodsmen combed the scattered farms and bushland for miles in every direction. Eagle Lake was dragged and stop logs were put in at the dam so the river to Cranberry Lake could be explored. The result was negative.

When the men gave up Mrs. Arnberg, accompanied by her neighbor Mrs. Marina Burchill, recovered the ground in the vain hope that in their haste the men might have overlooked a clue which would explain the baffling mystery.

The search extended for years with everyone in the settlement alerted but as far as they were ever able to ascertain Mrs. Hunter walked that fateful 150 feet to the foot of the hill to where? Only the hills know!

Mrs. Hunter's grandson, Mr. Jack Arnberg who is still living at Eagle Lake, recalls vividly the tragic disappearance which remains today one of the most bizarre events in Haliburton's history.

Letters To Editor

Dear Sir:

The Haliburton County Echo is much better than a letter from home, portraying so vividly the winter sports, news and views and patiently printing the ideas of all who wish to use the pen, wisely or unwisely.

May I also raise my voice to agree wholly with Mrs. Lunham. Never can I forget seeing Raven Lake during a low water time. Its cosy cottages and lawns overlooking the ugly black mud hole. There may be many more such lots as on our scenic highways which could share a like fate.

If we could tap the water from the north needed for the Trent. Now every time we turn we pay a new license or tax and more hydro dues. Now the man on the street has a right to be told the why and wherefor of the increases. We have had a wonderful public servant and are to have more I see, the Y.P.C. May they not only shape their wits by playing politics but remember a man's a man only as he serves his community and seeks to protect his constituency.

We were the first to install hydro on Highway 35. Maybe I shall live to take it out in used coal oil again.

council at each monthly meeting.

The treasurer's financial report was accepted and approved for the month ending January 31, 1962. Expenditures for the month amounted to $2,457.

It was moved and approved to pay road sheet No. 2 to the amount of $1,028.10, included also was the balance or a bill to Mr. McKnight of $14.69.

It was moved and approved that the following accounts be paid as follows: Millerest nursing home $70.45; Faulkner's nursing home $70.75; the Municipal World $29.61; to registering deed and search $6.60; freight on registering books to auditors $2.95; postage $5.

The motion was passed to have all dogs, cats and household pets to be inoculated against rabies by the Dept. of Agriculture.

It was moved that the following be appointed as fire wardens: Geo. Hancock of Irondale, W. A. Kaye of Donald, Moss Graham of Bear Lake and Thomas Madill of Gooderham.

A letter was read from the clerk of Snowdon township in reply to one from Glamorgan, wherein that Glamorgan requested Snowdon to share in the cost of plowing the road to Geo. Hancocks.

Snowdon's reply in brief was that they did not see their way clear to accept this request as Geo. Hancock does not reside in their township.

However, it was reported to this writer that 21 ratepayers paying taxes to Snowdon township use this same road.

They may not be year round residents, but the fact is that non permanent residents exceed permanent residents in the amount of taxes paid by over 35%. Therefore if these ratepayers wish to visit and inspect their properties during the winter season, and a great number do, they should be accorded some consideration by the townships.

Township councils would be well advised to work in harmonious agreement for the general good of all the people in the county of Haliburton.

The meeting was adjourned at 5 p.m. The next regular meeting of council will be held on Saturday, April 7 at 1 p.m.

Dymond Discusses Health in Ontario.

FILMS

Matthew B. Dymond, MD, CM,
Ontario Minister of Health

By and large the people of Ontario are as healthy, perhaps healthier, than the people of any other province in Canada or State in the United States.

This is as it should be and your Ontario Department of Health intends to keep it that way. It employs hundreds of health and science experts to protect the health standards of the province.

Yet having experts to provide the answers to health problems is not enough. These answers must be relayed to the millions of people in the province.

The task of telling the story of good health falls to the Department's Division of Information and Publicity.

The experts in this Division believe that a good picture is worth a thousand words. Thus they use a film library with 42 different movie films on such topics as nutrition, mental retardation, alcoholism and nursing.

Hundreds of Home and School Associations, service clubs and other groups across the province used these films last year.

Requests for some of the films come to the Division from other parts of Canada. Dozens of training groups and schools use the films to help in their instructions.

In the past few years hundreds of thousands of people have seen and learned from these films. One of the department's films "One On Every Street" has been shown by almost every Canadian T.V. station. In order to keep up with the demand for these films, (which are supplied, on loan, free of charge) your Department of Health has had to have as many as 26 copies of the same film.

Through the distribution of the films we hope that the health level of the people of Ontario will rise even higher. We also hope to create a better understanding of the crucial problems of mental illness and alcoholism.
